THE AMERICAN JEW AND HIS LOYALTY TO THE FLAG. Pleasing evidence of the homogeneity of the American people, although representing every nationality and creed known among men, is found in the accounts, published by the San Francisco papers of the banquet tendered the Jewish soldiers of the Twenty-seventh infantry at the close of the Yom Kippur fast last Thursday evening. The Twenty-seventh regiment sailed for the Philippines on Monday, and the banquet was designed both as a celebration of the great Jewish fast day and a farewell entertainment to the young men who were soon to take their departure for a far away land to add in upholding the honor and dignity of their country and flag.

The Twenty-seventh was largely recruited in the East and there are many Jewish boys in the regiment, all from New York and that vicinity. Twenty-two of these Jewish youths served all through the Cuban campaign, and bore testimony to the loyalty and patriotism of their race by their prompt re-enlistment at the call of the country for the war in the Philippines. The banquet was given by the Alumni Association of Congregation Beth Israel, one of the most aristocratic circles of the city of San Francisco. Permission was obtained from Colonel Bell, in command of the regiment, for the attendance of the young men at the Day of Atonement services, held in Dr. Levy's synagogue, and the banquet took place at 8:30 o'clock in the evening.

Among many notable incidents of the occasion were brief addresses delivered by Colonel Kowalsky and Dr. Levy. Colonel Kowalsky warmly praised Rabbi Levy, by whom the banquet plan was first suggested, and closed his address with a glowing tribute to the fidelity of the Jew to the American Union. Among other things the colonel said: "The Jew in all times of history has been loyal to his religion. Wherever he has adopted a country he has been one of the most loyal supporters of that country, and it is with pride that we see so large a percentage of our Jewish boys fighting beneath the Stars and Stripes."

Dr. Levy's speech was intensely patriotic, and his earnest commendation of the young men, whom he addressed for their course in obeying their country's call will be touching and most thrilling to every American heart. The following extracts from the doctor's address, as it was reported in last Friday's Examiner, are worthy of republication in every newspaper in the land. Dr. Levy said: "I am particularly touched by the privilege of meeting the soldier boys here at this time. When their regiment arrived a week ago, one of the members called at my house with a message from New York, and asked, on behalf of the regiment, the privilege of celebrating Yom Kippur in the Jewish way. Thus he described his efforts to obtain military permission for attendance at the religious services, stating that he had told the colonel that when men are found in faithful allegiance to the religion of their fathers they will be found true to their flag. He spoke in intense loyalty of the United States flag, which he declared was to the Jews the best flag in all the world. "Do your duty to the flag," he added. "One Jew cannot fall in that without doing injury to all other Jews. You are expected to do more than your duty. This may be the last Kippur on earth for some of you, and I trust that if occasion demands it you will die bravely, courageously, heroically, beneath the folds of the flag that offers freedom to all."

Society of the Congregation Beth Israel, of the most ardent. Then Mr. Kowalsky called on the soldiers for a speech, and Sergeant Frank English responded. The sergeant said that the Jewish members of the Twenty-seventh regiment would be first on the firing line whenever the regiment should be called into action. Private Jacob Solins, followed, saying that the Jewish members of the regiment would do their duty in whatever shape the duty might present itself. He thanked Dr. Levy, Colonel Kowalsky and the others for the generous reception. S. Myerson and Major Ellis also made speeches. Then cheers were given by the soldiers for President McKinley, for Colonel James Bell and other regimental officers, for Dr. Levy, Colonel Kowalsky and the members of the Beth Israel Alumni Association, for Mrs. Levy, for San Francisco, for "old New York." Dr. Levy led in the singing of "America," and then the banquet ended. Dr. Levy provided transportation to the Presidio for the soldiers. "The flag of the United States," as Dr. Levy truly says, is to the Jew as to every nationality and creed "the best flag on earth." And to the lasting credit of the Jew, no class of American citizens has been more forward in time of national peril or calamity than the Jew, both with the tender of his purse and with his lifeblood, if necessary. America is proud of her Jews and in no other country have more honors or a larger share of influence in public and private life been accorded any distinctive race or class than to the Jew in the United States. Numbering only about one million in a population of nearly seventy-five million, no element of our people is represented in so great a proportion in every public movement which tends to the country's advancement and the betterment of the condition of mankind both at home and throughout the world.

When a man is struck down by a poisoned arrow tipped with the venom of the deadliest of serpents, he knows that his time has come. Death is only a matter of moments; but not one man in a thousand realizes that when a little extra bile gets into his blood his whole system is being poisoned just as truly as if a venomous arrow was sticking in his vital. Bile-poisoning is a good deal quicker than bile-poison but the latter will do just as deadly work if it keeps on accumulating in the system. Probably two-thirds of the cases that end in consumption begin with "liver complaint" and indigestion. These troubles never get as far as consumption if Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery was used before they begin. This remarkable "Discovery" invigorates the torpid liver and gives it power to filter the poisons out of the system rapidly and thoroughly. It strengthens the digestive fluids and enables them to make rich red nourishing blood; it builds up healthy muscle, steady nerve force and enduring strength. The experience of Mr. Val Burkard, living at 16 Mohr Ave., Buffalo, N. Y., is given in his own words: "Five weeks ago I followed your advice and took two bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and also two bottles of the 'Flesh-Laxative.' I consider myself entirely cured, as there has been no eruption since I finished the last bottle. I think it is the greatest remedy on the globe for blood and digestive disorders. My appetite increased wonderfully and I have also gained flesh. I would like everybody to know the true value of Dr. Pierce's medicines as I am confident by consistent use they cure all ailments for which they are recommended." No household should be without a reliable doctor's book. Send in one-cent stamps for Dr. Pierce's 1000-page "Common Sense Medical Adviser" to the World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y. A heavier cloth-bound volume 35 stamps.
